Your file 125026/B.

In reply to your enquiry of May 16th, I may say that the land above mentioned was the homestead of Jan Ulan, patented to him on the 20th October, 1902.

There is record of a homestead entry by Wasyl Maciach dated May 12th, 1913 for the SW¼ 2-67-21 W.4th M. He was single and 21 years of age at that time. He lived on the land for 5 days only and signed a declaration of abandonment the following year. His next entry was for the NW¼ 18-61-21 W.4th M. dated July 20th, 1920. The homestead duties were completed and patent issued in his name on September 14th, 1925. Possibly this is the man in whom you are interested.

Dear Madam:

I have received your further letter of February 27 concerning your citizenship and that of your father, Joseph John Musicka. You have asked a number of questions in your letter, and I shall endeavour to reply to them in the order in which they are recorded.

"1. What requirements did one have to comply with to become naturalised under the Canadian law in 1907? Can you cite the statute and quote it word for word for me?"

The statute was the Naturalization Act, Chapter 77, R.S.C. 1906, and the pertinent Section of the Act is Section 13, which reads as follows:

> "Any alien who, within such limited time before taking the oaths or affirmations of residence and allegiance and procuring the same to be filed of record as hereinafter prescribed, as may be allowed by order or regulation of the Governor in Council, has resided in Canada for a term of not less than three years, or has been in the service of the Government of Canada or of any of the provinces of Canada, or of two or more of such governments, for a term of not less than three years, and intends, when naturalized, either to reside in Canada or to serve under the Government of Canada or the Government of one of the provinces of Canada, or two or more of such governments, may take and subscribe the oaths of residence and allegiance or of service and allegiance in form A and apply for a certificate in form B. R.S., c 113, s. 8."

Ottawa, March 13, 1956.
J.L.J.M

"2. Did my father become a naturalized Canadian by taking the oath he did in connection with the homestead situation in 1907? Can you cite the homestead law of 1907 and quote it word for word?"

Your father would have become naturalised by taking the Oath of Allegiance which was at that time incorporated in the Naturalisation Act, Chapter 77.

I cannot cite the Homestead Law of 1907, but I am sending copies of this correspondence to the Officer in Charge of Dominion Lands Records of the Lands Division, Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources, so that a reply may be made to that part of your enquiry.

"3. If my father became a naturalized Canadian in 1907, did he lose his American citizenship? I presume this will depend upon the American immigration laws at that time and I will consult our Immigration Department on this point."

In your second sentence you have moved toward an answer to your question.

"4. If my father lost his American citizenship in 1907,

(a) what is the status of the citizenship of his children born in Canada?

Austin Benedict born in 1919
Marie Anna born 1918

(b) what is the status of the citizenship of his children born in the United States?

Francis Joseph born in Oregon in 1913
Albert John born in Oregon in 1921 or 1922
Helen Elizabeth born in Oregon in 1924 or 1925."

Ottawa, March 13, 1956.
JMD:JM

Regarding "(a)", the children born in Canada are natural-born Canadian citizens, regardless of the nationality of the father. The two children born in Canada may also have the status of United States citizens under American law, but that would be a matter for the United States authorities to determine.

"(b)" The Three children born in the United States between 1913 and 1925 are not Canadian citizens unless they were admitted to Canada for permanent residence prior to January 1, 1947. Presumably, they are natural-born American citizens by reason of birth in the United States.

"5. If it is determined that I had American citizenship when born, did I also have Canadian citizenship? If I had dual citizenship, did I lose my Canadian citizenship when I voted in the American elections?"

You are a natural-born Canadian citizen within the meaning of the Canadian Citizenship Act, Section 4 (1)(a). You would not have ceased to be a British subject or Canadian citizen by voting in American elections.

There is a provision in the Canadian Citizenship Act, Section 16, which reads as follows:

> "16. Where a natural-born Canadian citizen, at his birth or during his minority, or any Canadian citizen on marriage, became or becomes under the law of any other country a national or citizen of that country, if, after attaining the full age of twenty-one years, or after the marriage, he makes, while not under disability, and still such a national or citizen, a declaration renouncing his Canadian citizenship, he thereupon ceases to be a Canadian citizen. 1950, c. 29, s 8."

You will note that under the foregoing Section of the Canadian Citizenship Act you may, if you are at present a citizen of the United States of America, file with this Branch a declaration renouncing your Canadian citizenship (if you want to take such a step).

Ottawa, March 13, 1956.
JMM:JM

"6. Did my brother Austin have dual citizenship (if it is determined that he had American citizenship)? If so, did he lose his Canadian citizenship when he went into the United States Army in World War II?"

Your brother Austin, having been born in Canada, is in the same category as yourself. He would not have lost his Canadian citizenship or the status of a natural-born British subject by service in the United States Army in World War II. He could, if he has the status of an American citizen, file a declaration of renunciation of Canadian citizenship if he should wish to do so.

I am sending this letter to you in duplicate so that you may submit a copy to your Immigration Department.

Yours truly,

J. [illegible] MCGIBBON,
Registrar of Canadian Citizenship.

Mr. Fagan

Ottawa, 20 March, 1956.

Miss Marie Ann Melrose,
3555 Broderick Street,
San Francisco, California,
U.S.A.

Dear Madam:

The Registrar of Canadian Citizenship, Mr. J.E. Dugran, has sent us a copy of his letter of the 13th of March, 1956, suggesting that we reply to your question regarding the homestead law of 1907.

The regulations governing homestead entries and patents was contained in the Dominion LandsAct and Subsection 3 of Section 24 of the 1906-7 Act deals with naturalization and reads in part as follows:

> "Letters Patent for a homestead shall not issue to any person who is not a subject of his Majesty by birth or naturalization."

While Application for Entry for a homestead grant was accepted from an alien you will see from the above clause that patent or title did not issue to the entrant unless he was a naturalized citizen of Canada.

Yours very truly,

J. A. LaCapelain,
Chief, Lands Division.

Re: Miss Marie Ann Melrose

I have your letter of the 29th of March, 1956, relative to your enquiry as to the citizenship status of Joseph John Ruzicka, father of the above named.
